Hudson, Cisne & Co. Acquires Arkansas Firm
Combined firms' 60 employees to operate under Hudson, Cisne & Co.

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. (August 16, 2017) – Partners of Hudson, Cisne & Co., LLP announced today that they have acquired Newton, Owen, Boyd & Smoke, LTD. This new partnership will create a state-wide network of Hudson, Cisne & Co. accounting services for each existing client base.

The Hudson, Cisne & Co. leadership team will grow to have six partners, ensuring joint representation of both organizations. In total, the firm will grow to nearly 60 staff members and will have 32 CPAs. Offices in White Hall and Rogers formerly of Newton, Owen, Boyd & Smoke will now operate as normal under the Hudson, Cisne & Co name. There are no planned layoffs. The Little Rock office of Hudson, Cisne & Co. will continue to operate at the same location and serve as the firm's main headquarters.

Newton, Owen, Boyd & Smoke, based in White Hall and Rogers, offers payroll, sales tax, QuickBooks and outsourced accounting services. Hudson, Cisne & Co. provides a full range of accounting services, including but not limited to audits, reviews, compilations, tax preparation, business valuations and retirement plan administration.

“The joining of these two successful Arkansas businesses is a natural partnership that allows our firm to offer a greater diversity of services to clients,” said Karen Garrett, Partner of Hudson, Cisne & Co. “Utilizing the skill sets of each firm's team, we are excited to continue growing.”
